

the vicar of dibley

A heaven-sent reverend and her wacky parish in a side-splitting, award-winning divine comedy

Dawn French dons her cassock once more to lead the parishioners of Dibley through a year of ups and downs, surprises and disappointments, chocolate and love affairs.

Geraldine Granger is not your run-of-the-mill village vicar. She is a bubbly, young reverend overseeing an eccentric congregation in a rural community. She and her off-the-wall parishioners have returned for a third series to bring us unconventional laughs in this glorious comedy.

In the last series, adorably dippy Alice, draped in a fairy-light dress and accompanied by Teletubby bridesmaids, married her sweetheart Hugo. Now she is anxious that she is losing her sexual allure after gaining four pounds. Geraldine puts two and two together and gives the couple surprising news: a baby is on the way.

Romance is on the cards once more as devilishly handsome Simon arrives at the Vicarage. But is he back to light up Geraldine's life or break her heart again? The parish is in chaos as Geraldine's mind has steered from righteousness to full-on passion.

From foul-mouthed and foul-smelling Owen Newitt to pedantic minute-taker Frank Pickle, Geraldine keeps a godly eye on her parishioners and tackles their problems with a hilarious yet saintly touch. This off-the-wall comedy brings barrels of laughs coupled with colourful characters as it moves full steam ahead into its third series.

"Gloriously daft characters and the jokes are not just comical but clever as well." Daily Mirror

"Dawn French is unquestionably one of our most talented comics." Today

"Terrific Fun." Daily Star

Awards

International Emmy
Royal Television Society Award
National Television Award
British Comedy Award

Starring Dawn French, Gary Waldhorn, Emma Chambers, James Fleet, Clive Mantle, John Bluthal, Trevor Peacock, Roger Lloyd-Pack

Written by Richard Curtis (Notting Hill, Four Weddings and a Funeral) and Paul Mayhew Archer (Nelson's Column)

Director Gareth Carrivick
Producers Jon Plowman (Absolutely Fabulous, French and Saunders) and Margot Gavan Duffy

A Tiger Aspect production for BBC Television

Entertainment

9 x 30 and 3 x 40 minutes available now
4 x 30 minutes coming soon

©2000 BBC Worldwide Ltd London W12 0TT
Tel +44 20 8433 2000 Fax +44 20 8740 1182
www.bbcworldwidetv.com

BBC Worldwide